THEY MUST NOT FIGHT

Police Prohibit the Fox-Agnew Contest.

There will be no boxing exhibition this evening. A notice to this effect was sent yesterday to the directors of the Oahu Athletic Association by High Sheriff Brown.Some time ago the association applied to the High Sheriff for a permit to conduct a friendly sparring exhibition between Jimmy Fox and Lon Agnew. The permit was granted, with the understanding that no charge should be made for admission, and that only bona fide members of the club should witness the bout.The club went ahead with arrangements and tonight was fixed for the show. To fill in the evening, several preliminary four-round goes were arranged between local knights of the stuffed mits.
Meanwhile, the prospective opponents trained assiduously and the local sports wagered quarters and half dollars freely on the outcome.All would have been well had not the club been a little too zealous in the matter of profits. Five hundred tickets were printed, and advertised to be sold at membership rates of $2.50 each. Nominally, these tickets were certificates of membership in the Oahu Athletic Association.The High Sheriff heard of this inglorious scheme to circumvent the "no gate money" understanding, and sent several men to the headquarters of the club to purchase tickets. This they had no difficulty whatever in doing, in fact, in at least one case, the name of the purchaser was not even inquired. Five hundred tickets at $2.50 each would have netted the schemers a snug sum for the promotion of two or three four-round bouts between boxers who have more or less outlived their sphere of usefulness in the roped arena.The last nail was driven in the coffin when Fox and Agnew met near the postoffice yesterday, and engaged in a disgraceful street brawl. Accounts of the origin of the affray differ, but the pugil-ists are said to have met to discuss the question of a referee. One of them then called the other a foul name, whereupon the man with a grievance promptly knocked the other down.This incident, and that of the bogus certificates of membership, forced the High Sheriff to rescind the permit.
Fox was formerly the ex-champion amateur lightweight boxer of the Pacific Coast. He has been in Honolulu some time. Had the fight come off, he would have entered the ring weighing about 135 pounds.Lon Agnew was once considered a fairly good lightweight boxer. He won several fights in San Francisco. He is now a middleweight, weighing nearly 160 pounds. For several months past he has been employed as a special officer on the local police force.Both men have freely announced their intention of knocking their opponent's head off when they met in the ring. This, in High Sheriff Brown's opinion, constituted premeditated contention as prohibited by Section 312, Chapter 33, of the Penal Laws of 1897, which reads:"An affray is the fighting of two or more persons in a public place, and includes any prize fight or other premeditated contention, where no weapons are used. Whoever takes part in, encourages or promotes an affray, or is willfully present as a spectator at any prize fight or other premeditated contention, shall be punished by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or by imprisonment at hard labor not more than six months."

HOTEL'S NEW MANAGER.

H. W. Lake Arrives and at Once Takes Hold of the House.Manager H. W. Lake, of the Hawalii Hotel, arrived in the city yesterday morning and at once took charge of the work of the house at the request of former manager Allen. Last evening a new chef was in the kitchen, a new steward in the pantry and a new head-waiter about the well filled dining room. The work of acustoming themselves to their new surroundings was on and the only traces of the former management are the clerks, who will remain, and the memory of the former manager, whose departure is regretted by many friends.Mr. Lake is well known to many persons here as the former manager of the Baldwin hotel of San Francisco, and more recently of the Pleasanton hotel of the same city. He has had a score of years' experience in his chosen calling and has been in many fine houses during that time. He comes here with opportunities to make the house what he will, and his record gives reason for the expectations of his friends.

Father Boardman's Lecture.

Father Boardman, the eloquent Jesuit priest, spoke again last night at the Cathedral. The text of his lecture was "The True Church." and he handled the subject in his usual masterly manner. Great crowds are attending Father Boardman's lectures, not only Catholics, but people of all creeds.H. R. Dunaway and David Ferris, of Portland, Ore., arrived in the Sierra yesterday, for a visit to Honolulu.Hawaiian Tribe, Order of Red Men, will hold their regular semi-monthly meeting tonight in St. Antonio Hall.

HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS AT THE CAPITAL

other business that any steam vessel may lawfully engage in without regard to classification. Respectfully, O. L. SPAULDING,
Acting Secretary.Collector of Customs, Honolulu, Hawaii.The volume of correspondence and of communications between the government and people of Hawaii and the Interior Department is rapidly increasing. Every mail brings added evidence of this. The correspondence is on an increasing variety of topics, including contracts, bonds to ensure the thorough execution of the same, disposal of public lands, and the like. These questions are acted upon directly by the Secretary of the Interior, and in case of protests or complaints, forwarded from Hawaii, the usual course is to return a copy of the same immediately to Governor Dole for his answer, before any decided action is taken. Accordingly, this official routine means generally four trips between Washington and Honolulu before a protestant or complainant receives an answer. That means over two months of time.The Interior Department is very insistent on all protests being duly signed. About August 1st a protest against the sale of certain public lands in Hilo arrived. It was in typewriting, and was signed to the bottom of the 1-page document being simply "American Settlers Association." It went into the files of the department, but was otherwise completely ignored. The department wants signatures of individuals, and wants them in ink. This particular document was accompanied by a clipping from the Honolulu Republican, referring to the sale of lands in Hilo. The protest reads as follows:Mountain View, July 15, 1901.
Notice is given of further disposals of a large block of improved agricultural land, which is offered for sale at public auction by the Hawaiian Commissioner of Public Lands without any proclamation to the people. There are few, if any, that believe these provisions for disposal of lands to be legal, and it should not be held legal. These public lands are passing into the hands of speculators, which should not be countenanced from Washington.
It is our belief that the executive order of the President, issued September 11, 1899, never having been withdrawn or revoked, is still in full force and effect, and it ought to be till Congress is able to pass a law regulating the disposal of this property.THE AMERICAN SETTLERS' AS-SOCIATION.
There are but few other protests regarding the sale of public lands at the Department of the Interior. All of them, in fact, are regarded by the officials as of little import, as the department has made it known in Honolulu that it does not favor the selling of public lands in blocks, and that this property is to be disposed of to individuals as far as possible. Some months ago instructions were given Governor Dole not to allow the government auctioneer to bid in these lands at sales, nor to allow clerks in the land office to do so. A protest against the dispossession of certain squatters was received away back last March, and also a protest from T. J.
Ryan, of similar character, the same month. The protest first referred to reads as follows:

Olaa, Hawaii, March 15, 1901.

Hon. E. A. Hitchcock, Secretary of the Interior, Washington, D. C.
Notice having been given to us through the public press that you have required the Governor of this Territory to report the facts relating to settlers upon the public lands of this Territory.
To this we offer no objection; provided, that no action be taken on such report by the department until the settlers shall have been allowed to submit a report or evidence in relation to such settlement.The Governor has taken an active part against the settlers from the start, commencing in July, 1894, and has never given any possible thought to dispossess the settlers ever since. We do not hesitate to say that Governor Dole is now and at all times since the date just above mentioned has been prejudiced against these settlers.
By reason of such prejudice and bias it is not likely that he will report all the facts, and will avoid reporting anything favorable to the settlers. We, the undersigned settled in good faith upon said public lands; have made substantial and valuable improvements, and with bona fide intentions of filing upon the tracts upon which we have settled under the special laws promised in the resolution of annexation, when Congress shall have passed said special laws, and we were offered an opportunity to make a legal filing thereon. We have at all times and do now seek an investigation of this subject by the federal authorities at Washington, and we pray that we may be accorded a hearing and allowed to show all the facts by sworn testimony.H. O. GERLACH, S. A. HUNTINGTON,
C. J. GIDDINGS,
E. A. HORAN,
F. R. GIDDINGS.

H. O. GERLACH.

Nine Miles P. O. Olaa, Hawaii.
As is already known in Hawaii, the department found that the claims of these settlers were without legal right, as there is no squatters' law for the Territory. Governor Dole's letter regarding the matter is on file at the department. In that letter he wrote justifying the bidding in of lands by the public auctioneer of the Commissioner of Public Lands, and by clerks of the office, saying that the charts were equally open to all, and that such officers had no advantage over the public. The department, however, thought it advisable to discountenance any practice that might even be interpreted as an appearance of favoritism and consequently directed that the practice should be discontinued.

On complaint of Tully McRea, of Rochester Theological Seminary, about methods of conducting the social evil in Hawaii, the Interior Department some weeks ago ordered a report from the Governor of the Territory. That report was forwarded here by Acting Governor Cooper, quoting the law passed over forty years ago, authorizing the stockade and other regulations. Mr.
McRea was one of those stirred up by such propaganda as Judge Humphreys has been distributing here, hoping to make capital in favor of his own case therefrom. The department has forwarded to Mr. McRea a copy of Acting Governor Cooper's report.
As that seems to be a satisfactory answer to the complaint, no further action is in contemplation by the department. ERNEST O. WALKER.Booker T. Washington was in conference at the White House with President Roosevelt, presumably on southern politics.
